Plateaus...

In Wyoming, there are a number of plateaus. Their images cut clearly against the sky. As the light hits the plateau throughout the day, the strata displays a variety of appealing red, orange, brown, and grey tones, and a lazy shadow plods along at the side. In truth, not all plateaus have this distinct desert look. Some of the world's plateaus are covered over in vegetation, some are underwater, and there can be quite a variation in sizes. To understand how big a plateau can be, it is said the state of Wyoming itself is a large plateau broken up by mountain ranges. Plateaus are created and shaped by wind, rain, movement of the earth's crust, and even lava flows.

There is another meaning for the term plateau which is taken from the geologic feature. The term plateau can mean a point where growth, increase, or improvement has leveled off. For Christians, this is not a beautiful thing. They are called to continual growth. (2 Pet. 3:18) That growth comes from knowing and following the Word of God. When spiritual growth occurs, plateaus are left and a grand peak is climbed. (2 Peter 1:3) Rather than geologic forces shaping the Christian life, humanity tries to shape it into a plateau. It tries to make the Christian like everyone else. It encourages his media choices. It suggests or tries to enforce worldly standards of morality. It offers many types of gods. If successful, these influences will not only cause a plateau in the life of a Christian, but they will erode it away into nothingness. (Matthew 7:24-27)

Can Someone Tell Me?

The Bible has been translated into 2018 languages. It is available in whole or in part to some 98 percent of the world in their primary language. Yet, a billion people are illiterate, live in a remote place, and/or the Bible is banned in their country. Are these people accountable to the Word of God?

The Truth: John 17:17 - Sanctify them in Truth; Thy Word is Truth.

The Promise: Matthew 7:7 - “Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:”

God's Nudge: Romans 1:20 - “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.”

God's Answer: 1 Corinthians 1:21 - “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

The Choice: I Corinthians 4:3-4 - And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in them that perish: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn upon them.

Godly Manner

Regardless of how the world treats you;
Regardless of what has happened before;
Regardless of what you will think will happen next;
You have the responsibility to act in a Godly manner.

A Godly manner is not defensive;
A Godly manner is not argumentative;
A Godly manner is not swift to respond;
You set the example of how to treat others.

~ Travis Main
